Services

Commercial / Corporate Litigation, Government Affairs & Investigations, Personal Injury,

Zack concentrates his practice in the areas of criminal defense, government investigations, appeals, victims' rights, and complex litigation.

Zack's practice involves representing clients at all phases of the criminal process—from pre-indictment investigations to appeals—in both state and federal court. He has successfully represented clients facing FDA and fraud charges, with many of these representations resulting in dismissals or substantially reduced charges. Zack also has represented individuals facing administrative complaints and penalties, including bar disciplinary proceedings and NCAA compliance issues. Zack also has experience representing individuals in professional and collegiate athletics.
