

Financial Services

Burr & Forman represents commercial banks, funds, financial institutions, and other capital providers, as well as borrowers and other capital users, in corporate and transactional matters, on regulatory and compliance issues, and in litigation.

In addition, we represent agents, lenders and borrowers, factors and their clients, and senior and junior lien holders. Our attorneys are particularly active in special assets, workout and bankruptcy transactions, bank litigation matters, and a wide range of loan transactions.

We work with banks and other lenders on real estate loan transactions, asset-based lending, corporate and investment lines of credit, and health care lending transactions. Burr's lending attorneys also have extensive experience with owner-occupied project facility finance, specialty equipment finance and local government tax abatement incentives.

Our banking and lending services include:

- Agricultural finance
- Bankruptcy litigation
- Commercial and industrial finance
- Commercial real estate finance
- Consumer and commercial finance litigation
- Equipment finance (aircraft, maritime & rolling stock)
- Foreclosures
- Health care finance
- Lender liability claims
- Letters of credit
