Doug Gartenlaub is a partner whose practice is primarily focused on representing clients in disputes related to construction and other matters related to real estate.

He is board certified in Business Litigation, representing owners, contractors and developers in a broad range of disputes ranging from complex multi-party construction and real estate matters to title disputes. As part of this practice, Douglas represents his clients in land use and regulatory matters related to construction and land use. In addition, Douglas has extensive experience representing clients in other areas such as the solid waste and recovered material service and contract disputes. This representation has included success in numerous matters and courts across the state, including administrative matters and arbitration forums. Douglas does not limit his representation to trial level matters and has experience following up his representation in the appellate court as well as extensive experience in post judgment collections including replevin, garnishment and similar actions.
