To help you keep employee leave management policies compliant with changing laws and regulations, we would like invite you to our upcoming October one day seminar, 2019 FMLA Master Class: South Carolina - Advanced Skills for Employee Leave Management.

This event will provide detailed information and education on the latest FMLA regulations and cutting edge compliance strategies.

During the first half of the event, the team will provide instruction on fundamental FMLA compliance principles in light of new and existing FMLA regulations, court rulings, and more. During the second half, you'll engage with the team, as well as peers, in a workshop like setting to discuss real life scenarios related to managing intermittent and reduced schedule leave, return to work, performance issues, problems before, during and after leave, and other critical issues.
