

Bill Penny Named Leader of Burr's Environmental And Land Use Practice Section

Firm News
01.14.2016

Nashville, Tenn., January 14, 2016 - Burr & Forman announces that Nashville-based Partner, William L. "Bill" Penny, has been named as the leader of the firm's Environmental & Land Use practice section.

The Environmental & Land Use section is a sub-section of the firm's Real Estate practice group. The section focuses on providing environmental advice and services associated with all aspects of business planning, development, and operation. The group seeks to assure compliance with statutory and regulatory requirements and thereby avoid enforcement actions and litigation. To learn more about the Environmental & Land Use section, please click here.

Penny has a wide range of experience in environmental law at the state and federal levels, including natural resource law, mining, remediation, negotiation with regulatory agencies in environmental matters, superfund litigation, RCRA matters, brownfield redevelopment, wetlands, water quality, radiological waste and compliance, and air pollution control.

About Burr & Forman LLP

For over a century, Burr & Forman LLP's experienced legal team has served clients with local, national, and international interests in numerous industry and practice areas, ranging from commercial litigation and class actions to corporate transactions, including bankruptcy and restructurings. A Southeast regional firm with nearly 300 attorneys and nine offices in Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Mississippi, and Tennessee, Burr & Forman attorneys draw from a diverse range of resources to help clients achieve their goals and address their complex legal needs. For more information, visit the firm's website at www.burr.com.

RELATED PROFESSIONALS

William L. Penny

Bill Penny Named Leader of Burr's Environmental And Land Use Practice Section