Birmingham, Ala., Aug. 10, 2017 - Burr & Forman LLP announces the addition of Birmingham-based associate Michelle L. McClafferty to its Torts Trial and Insurance (TIPS) practice group, where she boosts the firm's defense of complex civil litigation matters across its Southeastern footprint.

McClafferty assists in the defense of negligence, breaches of contract and fraud claims. She also has experience in labor and employment law, defending manufacturing facilities, professional employer organizations, franchises and restaurant owners, hotel owners, and local and national businesses against claims under federal and state employment statutes. Her practice focuses on the defense of corporate and individual clients involved in complex civil litigation, such as mass and toxic tort, product liability, insurance and personal injury claims.

McClafferty earned her undergraduate degree from Syracuse University and her law degree from Boston College Law School.

Burr & Forman's experienced legal team serves clients with local, national and international legal needs. With particular industry strengths in the financial institutions, health care and manufacturing sectors, the firm's attorneys draw from a diverse range of backgrounds and experience to serve as trusted business advisors and legal counsel to help clients achieve their goals.
