Burr & Forman Continues in Growth with the Addition of Two Attorneys in Greenville and Atlanta

Birmingham, Ala., August 17, 2020 - Burr & Forman announces the addition of Greenville-based associate Jake Rea and Atlanta-based associate Bailey Green. Rea joins the firm's Corporate and Tax practice group and Green joins the firm's General Commercial Litigation practice group.

Rea's practice focuses on estate planning, transactional matters, and business and tax planning. His background includes experience in preparing wills, powers of attorney, trust agreements, and decanting documents.

Jake received his undergraduate degree from Emory & Henry College and his law degree from the University of South Carolina. He also received his Master of Laws in Tax from New York University School of Law.

Prior to joining Burr & Forman, Green served as a Law Clerk for Judge Junius P. Fulton, III, and Judge Everett A. Martin, Jr. for the Fourth Judicial Circuit of Virginia in Norfolk, VA.

Bailey received her undergraduate degree from Baylor University. Prior to law school, she received a Fulbright Scholarship to Russia. She received her law degree from William & Mary School of Law.
