

Burr & Forman Continues South Florida Growth with New Financial Services Attorney in Ft. Lauderdale

Firm News
08.22.2014

Ft. Lauderdale, Fla. - Burr & Forman LLP is pleased to announce the addition of Douglas J. Stamm as an associate in its Fort Lauderdale office. He joins the firm's Financial Services practice group, concentrating on corporate business, real estate and commercial litigation. The addition of Stamm to Burr & Forman's Fort Lauderdale offices follows the firm's relocation earlier this month to accommodate anticipated growth in South Florida. Stamm is one of more than 20 new associates expected to join the firm across its Southeastern footprint over the next several weeks.

Stamm was previously with the Office of the Public Defender for the Seventeenth Judicial Circuit.

Stamm has experience representing clients from all aspects of real estate, including purchasers, sellers, lenders, borrowers and developers. He handles matters related to the acquisition, financing, development, and sale of both residential and commercial real estate. He also has a holistic perspective when representing clients in appellate matters, as he has previous experience in the Appellate Division of the Office of the Public Defender for the Eleventh Judicial Circuit.

Stamm is actively involved in several local and statewide organizations. He is a member of the Florida Bar Journal and News editorial board, as well as the Broward County Bar Association and the Broward Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers.

Stamm earned his undergraduate degree from Pomona College, and his law degree from the University of Miami School of Law.
