11.03.2022

Burr & Forman LLP is pleased to announce Julie A. Oliver joins the firm's Myrtle Beach, SC office as Counsel in the Corporate and Tax Practice Group. She concentrates her practice on estate planning, probate administration, guardianships and conservatorships, business formation, tax planning, and consulting. She also assists with various business transactions including asset purchase agreements, stock purchase agreements, operating agreements, shareholder agreements, partnership agreements, and by-laws.

Julie counsels clients in all areas of estate planning, including complex gift, generation skipping transfer tax, estate tax planning, lifetime giving and charitable planning, and prenuptial agreements. She also handles all aspects of probate and trust administration, including advising fiduciaries throughout the administrative process.

Myrtle Beach Office Managing Partner, Bhumi A. Patel says, "We are delighted to have Julie join us. Her estate planning and estate tax experience adds depth to our corporate and tax practice and bolsters our growing office."

Julie received her B.S. in Accounting and a minor in Economics from Elon University, her J.D. from Charleston School of Law, and LL.M. in Taxation from Georgetown University.
