Firm News

01.25.2023

Burr & Forman LLP is pleased to announce the arrival of Judah L. Solomon, William C. Hoffman, Jr., and Jonathan H. Plott have joined the firm.

"We are thrilled to continue to add talented attorneys to the Burr team," said Ed Christian, CEO and Managing Partner. "They bring unique experience to multiple practice groups and allow us to continue offering outstanding service to our clients."

Judah L. Solomon joins the Ft. Lauderdale office as Counsel in the firm's Financial Services Litigation Practice Group. Judah works with a range of clients, including banks, lenders, and servicers on matters involving high-value assets, foreclosures, and general and commercial litigation. He has both civil and criminal trial experience in nearly every county in Florida and has served as lead counsel in thousands of trials.

William C. Hoffman, Jr., resident in the Birmingham office as an Associate, joins the firm's Tort Trial, Insurance and Product Section (TIPS): Risk Mitigation and Complex Litigation Practice Group. His practice focuses on the defense of toxic tort, product liability, personal injury, and commercial litigation matters. Will has significant experience representing individuals and businesses both in and out of the courtroom. In addition to his litigation practice, Will advises businesses across the country on labor and employment and general corporate matters. He is admitted to practice in both Alabama and South Carolina.
