Law360 Pulse published an article on October 14, 2021 covering Bret Pruehs and Jennie Cerrati’s arrival to the firm. Pruehs and Cerrati each have rejoined the firm and practice in the Hilton Head, SC office.

Pruehs told the publication he chose to return because of the firm’s full-service offering that appealed to his clients, serving them in areas beyond his real estate practice. “All the reasons that I liked the firm in the first place continued to be true, and I found that my corporate clients really appreciated the full-services offerings the firm had,” he said. “We’re now able to take care of other practice areas, and my commercial and corporate clients really like the platform Burr & Forman can provide in South Carolina.”

Pruehs also discussed his practice in Hilton Head’s thriving real estate market, where he represents a variety of clients, including Fortune 500 companies and hospitality companies in the popular tourist island. Cerrati focuses her practice on estate planning, probate, trust and estate administration and various tax matters.
