

Burr & Forman's Adam Artigliere and Peg Fox Recognized on the South Carolina Supreme Court Pro Bono Honor Roll

Firm News
03.25.2021

The South Carolina Supreme Court Honor Roll recognizes South Carolina attorneys who volunteer 50 hours or more of legal service in a manner set forth in Rule 6.1 of the South Carolina Rules of Professional Conduct. Rule 6.1 encourages attorneys to provide free or low-cost legal services to people of limited means and charitable organizations, and to engage in activities that improve the law, the legal system, and the legal profession.

The South Carolina Supreme Court recognizes the efforts of dedicated attorneys who volunteer their legal skills through the annual Pro Bono Honor Roll.

Adam Artigliere is a partner in Burr & Forman LLP's Greenville office. In 2020, Adam provided 109 hours for pro bono clients and 62 hours of legal community service work, including conducting a Law Merit Badge clinic for Boy Scout Troop 235, and advising several non-profit boards. Adam focuses his practice on commercial real estate, local government and economic development.

Peg Fox practices in Burr & Forman LLP's Columbia office. In 2020, Peg spent 68 hours volunteering with the SC Bar's Law Related Education Committee, which promotes law-related education by sponsoring middle and high school mock trials and other competitions, providing teacher training, and developing law-related education materials for use in schools and by the public. Peg spent an additional 16 hours advising non-profit boards. Peg is a regulatory lawyer who advises and regularly represents

RELATED PROFESSIONALS

Margaret "Peg" M. Fox

Adam R. Artigliere

Burr & Forman's Adam Artigliere and Peg Fox Recognized on the South Carolina Supreme Court Pro Bono Honor Roll

telecommunication and other utilities in a range of regulatory matters before the South Carolina Public Service Commission.

About Burr & Forman LLP

For more than a century, Burr & Forman LLP's experienced legal team has served clients at the intersection of business and government in a wide variety of practice areas. A Southeast regional firm with 360 attorneys and 19 offices, Burr & Forman draws from a diverse range of resources to help clients achieve their goals and address their legal needs. For more information, visit Burr & Forman's website at burr.com.