

Burr Honored as One of Atlanta's Healthiest Employers Again by Atlanta Business Chronicle

Firm News
02.17.2017

In an article published on Feb. 17, 2017 in the Atlanta Business Chronicle, Burr & Forman was mentioned for making the 2017 Healthiest Employers Awards, an award that highlights companies who make employee wellness a priority. The two main components of Burr & Forman's Wellness Matters program have helped employees log over 520,000 miles and lose over 1,000 pounds since the program's inception. Moving Matters, the firm's walking program, gets sedentary employees off the couch and encourages people who are already exercising to keep at it. The weight management component of the program, Weight Matters, rewards employees for maintaining healthy weights and offers personalized assistance from registered nurses, dietitians and health coaches. Burr & Forman was No. 6 in the Large Employer category.

For the full article, subscribers to the Atlanta Business Chronicle may click here.