In an article published on July 22, 2016 by the Birmingham Business Journal, the firm was included among the 2016 Healthiest Employers in Birmingham. Cathy Ogletree provided insight on why the firm started the wellness matters program. Ogletree explained, "It's the right thing to do for our people, and we wanted to curb health care costs and improve productivity. It made sense from the employee and employer perspectives. Employees wanted it, and our firm leadership supported it."
