

Burr Welcomes 35 Summer Associates Across Southeastern Footprint

Firm News
05.20.2013

The students will reside across Burr & Forman's Southeastern offices, and will gain hands-on experience working with the firm's attorneys throughout all practice areas.

"Each summer associate was selected based on their proven motivation for success through academic, professional and civic accomplishments," said W. Lee Thuston, managing partner of Burr & Forman. "We welcome them to our offices and look forward to providing these law students with a thorough introduction to both the practice of law and to our firm."

The summer associates, along with their respective law school, include:

Atlanta

Sharon Kim, Emory University School of Law

Jordan Quinley, Mercer University School of Law

Michelli Rivera, Georgia State University College of Law

Birmingham

Jessica Brookshire, Cumberland School of Law at Samford University

Thomas Carter, University of Alabama School of Law
