

Burr's John Nefflen Elected to Friends of the Arts at Belmont University

Firm News

08.06.2013

FAB is a group of community leaders and volunteers committed to supporting the College of Visual and Performing Arts (CVPA) at Belmont University. CVPA is composed of the School of Music, Department of Art and Department of Theatre and Dance.

In this role, Nefflen will work with his fellow board members to raise awareness and support the programs of the CVPA; provide financial support for scholarships and special projects for the CVPA through the President's Dinner and Concert; and provide professional guidance and career opportunities to the students and faculty.

At Burr & Forman, Nefflen focuses his practice on commercial litigation, defense of personal injury claims, product liability, and employment matters.