

CEO Ed Christian Discusses Summer Clerk Programs in The Daily Report

Firm News
06.22.2022

Ed Christian, the firm's Chief Executive Officer, was quoted in a June 17 article by The Daily Report discussing law firm summer programs as more events and onboarding are increasingly taking place in-person.

Burr & Forman welcomed 42 summer law clerks to this year's program, marking the largest class in firm history. "That was intentional," Christian said. "Ours was just from wanting to continue to build and improve the pipeline of new lawyers coming out of law school to become associates and hopefully become partners. We want to make sure we have that strong and deep pipeline for the future."
