Birmingham, AL. - In an article published by Location USA Magazine in April 2015, Lee Thuston and Marcel Debruge were quoted on the benefits of foreign manufacturing companies coming to the United States, as well as what these companies need to know when they make that move. "Companies are coming here because their market is substantially here," Thuston explained. "It's the primary driving force." Debruge added his perspective on the U.S. labor force, "Virtually all of the companies we've worked with here have not had trouble getting fresh labor as long as they can train them."
