

Burr & Forman's Pre-Law Program

2019 Pre-Law Class at Pre-Law Retreat

The Burr & Forman Pre-Law Program is an internship opportunity for students of diverse backgrounds who have demonstrated interest and potential to succeed in law school and beyond through accomplishments in their undergraduate careers.

The program focuses on building legal skills as well as professional skills to carry students through law school, and ultimately, a career in the legal field. Activities include:

- Mock trial class
- Professional communication and public speaking seminar
- College admission speakers from law schools in the region
- Resume best practices & review class
- Firm-wide "Pre-Law Retreat" where all pre-laws are brought together for two days of programming and social activities
- Complete real case assessments
- Sit in on real firm practice group meetings
- Conduct legal research on current cases for attorneys
- Court visits with attorneys
- Sit-in on real client meetings
- Attend firm events and networking receptions
- One-on-one meetings with firm attorneys to learn more about the areas of law

Pre-law applications are accepted starting Feb. 1st through April 30th. For more information on how to apply for the 2021 pre-law program, please email James Roberts at jroberts@burr.com.
